I want to share with you a letter that changed my life. I wrote this letter to myself 7 years ago. It is a letter of truth and vulnerability. It is a letter that challenged me to be a better version of myself. This letter stirred up a lot of emotions because I was calling myself out on how I was choosing to live my life.

About A Life in Letters. The life story of a Russian master as he told it to others. From the teenager in provincial Russia in 1875 to his premature death in Germany in 1904, Chekhov wrote over 4,500 letters to a range of correspondents, including family and friends, his publisher and fellow writers – not to mention actresses. These letters tell the story of Chekhov's life as a man and a writer and he emerges from them as a tough, generous, life-enhancing, and enigmatic character.
